

A TRIBUTE TO SR. ANGELLA HARRIS, O.S.F.

We recall at this time the poem by P. B. Shelley titled Ozymandias. It talks about a king who made monuments and statues of himself. But as years passed by they were all destroyed and buried in the vast endless desert sands.

Unlike this king some others leave their legacy in hearts of people which is never destroyed. Such a person has been our Sr. Angella Harris. She has scripted love and enduring respect in the hearts of the ladies in the New York Chapter's Alumnae Association.

Using the letters of the acronym of our alma mater, the word associated serves as a glimpse into the phenomenal Principal Angella Harris, O.S.F.

I = Inspirational, Incredible and, of course, Immaculate,

C = Courageous, Congenial, Conscientious, Catholic and Cricket Fan,

H = Humble, Hopeful, Helpful, Honorable, Hospitable, and

S = Scholarly, Spiritual, Strong, Sympathetic, Sincere, and in Service.

Sister Angella, our 15 years together has been fun and challenging and everything in between. You led and joined us in faith and collaboration. We appreciate you and wish you nothing but the best in health and faithfulness.

In fellowship and love,
The ladies of the ICHS AA NY Chapter
